

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election should not be allowed. It's my understanding it is illegal and clearly unethical. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Their practices are not in the public's best interest. Thank you.
